There is not a Luco Foco paper in the land, from whose tiles we cannot take article after article, argaing earnestly in favor or the erection of many abeturing establishments in cities and vilages in the country. They arge as reasons for uch establishments the following:
That they ought to be builds and put in opera-persons, otherwise memployed. They employ a numerous class of laborers who would otherwise turn their attention to farming, and thus over supply the markets, instead of Julying supplies in the markets.

They enable farmers in the country around to exchange their products to the hest possible advantage, for such things as they need, at the least possible expense of commission and transporta-

Every new foundry, factory, or manufacturing establishment, of any kind, in this State, are bailed by those very free traders for these very reayou. And yet, when the friends of Home It. dueny insist upon the application of this principle in our national Legislation, they are met with no arguments, but boid assertions that they are working against the interests of the burner;

One first is worth all the theories so persever ingly par forth by the free traders. There is no one article of manufacture which has been en couraged by the benign potentive policy of Washington, Adams, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Adare and Jackson, that has not been greatly codirect in prior to the consumer in this country.— Not one! There is no such thing as an increase of price on a single one of them—so that the idea of a tay paid by names, for the Length of man-alteriors is all monoscime—the very stuff that dreams are made of

The revenues of government must and will be derived from duties upon imports. These cannot Le laid so as to have no influence at all upon our home interests. They roust have some influence, soul or bad. They must and will discriminate, in the exture of things, e ther in favor of or against borne articles and home laborers. Which shall i be: The free traders, under Mr. Walker's lead, Not so; let us discriminate in favor of our own We do not know exactly where to place the omercial on this question, except from the gener ditendency of its articles. One day it tells in that so long as we argoe in favor of discrimination for American Tudustry, we shall not differ to lely from d; and the next day it defines its mader randing of a protective tariff, as one which will "decomage or prevent" the introduction of foreign acticles, and prevent competition, and ciations, therefores on to knock down the man of straw which it has set ep.

We do not believe in prohibitory duties. It no early policy that we migue for, and we do not know of any authority which can be quoted in favor of se extreme a measure, except that of the great Apostle or Denocracy, Thomas Jefferson, it the time when his regard for the rights and in tereste of Americane, and his jenlousy of foreign lider, had reached its climax. The buildings at the Annapolis Naval School are in progress of crection, and the sloop-of-war Proble has been attached to the neadenry as a practice ship for instruction in practical semanship. An important change has been made in the plan of of education, so as to require a continued course of study of four years at the academy, without going to sea, except that the vacation of three months in each year is spent in a cruise in the practice ship, the former course requiring two years at the academy.

The wind and current charts planned by Lieut, Maury, the Superintendent of the Observatory, are being extended to the Pucific and Indian occurs. This work has materially shortened the presses into and through the southern hemisphere, bringing the ports of those distant part of the world—some tea days, and some serond weeks nearer to us than before. A letter from the Superintendent of the Observatory states the important fact that vessels suiling from the Atlantic to the Pacific ports of the United State with the instructions afforded by these chart-make the voyage in forty days less, upon the average than those suiling without them; and that there is reason to hope the time may be still further reduced.

New York, Dec. 13-2 P. M. The following brief address by Kossura to the people of the United States is published: Ha ing come to the United States to avail myself, to the cause of my country, of the sympathy which. I had reason to believe, rested in the hearts of the nation, I found it my duty to declare, in the first moments of my arrival, that it is my mission to plead the independence of Hungary and the countries of the European continent before the great Republic of the United States. My princi-pal in terest, I repeat, is that every nation has soveroig rights of its own, and I invoke the friends of m cause not to do anything that will throw difficulties upon me, or which, while expressing sympathy for the cause, would prejudice it. It is with regret that I feel the necessity of again
